GOOD ORDER. The excellent order preserved yesterday was a general remark, in view of the ammense crowd in attendance. Superintendent Richards had his police force in active motion to that end, but the general good conduct of the throng rendered the task an easy one. Every restaurant and shop where liquor was sold was apparently locked up, or the bars closed yesterday; and to this fact may be attributed in some degree the admirable order which prevailed in the streets.

THE INSCRIPTIONS .- Amongst the mottoes apprepriate to the occasion that attracted attention yesterday was that over Grover's

"The nation mourns a martyred father;" and the neighboring one fronting the Paymaszer's Department main building: "His life was gentle; and the elements so mix'd to him that nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This was a man.'

HYMENIAL.-This morning, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. Dr. C. H. Hall, of the Church of the Epiphany, Dr. Wm. E. Poulton, U. S. V., to Miss Lydia E. Mills, the accomplished daughter of Capt. John Mills. The happy couple accompanied by the bridal party left in the 11 o'clock train for a tour. Mr. John Bodine officiated as groomsman and Miss Julia Powell as brides-

THE OLD SOLDIERS AT CAPTAIN THOMAS'S Office.-The little band of old soldiers who appeared in the procession yesterday become somewhat fatigued by standing, and were in-vited into Captain Thomas's office, where they (the Baltimoreans and our Washington men) "fought their battles o'er again." giving some very interesting reminiscences of the war of 1:12, in which they took part.

THE NUMBERS .- It is estimated that not less than 30,000 persons took part in the procession yesterday. The time occupied in passing a given point was one hour and thirty-five minutes, and but for the great width of the Avenue, allowing forty-four persons to walk abreast, or five carriages to drive abreast, it would have been drawn out for hours.
